

New DVD from the Summit Road Society!!

Many cities around the world are instantly recognisable from the mountains or hills that provide a backdrop to the urban environment. But surely nowhere in the world are the local hills more accessible, more friendly, or more widely used than those that lie between Christchurch and its port of Lyttelton. These hills are known as the Port Hills, and winding its way along them is the city's famous Summit Road.

This DVD tells the complete story of the Summit Road, from its formation in the early 20th Century by the visionary Harry Ell to the present day. It also provides an overview of Ell's four historic and unique resthouses, and describes the important work of the Summit Road Society.

Featuring dozens of historic photographs and postcards, as well as stunning scenic shots, this is an important and fascinating story that will entertain locals and visitors alike.
